Shakespeare in Song – from the Raucous to the Sublime

You are invited to join us for an evening of musical delights with talented performers:

- Aviva Pelham, one of South Africa's most gifted and loved artists. She sings an exceptionally wide range of music from the repertoire of opera, musicals, operetta, oratorio and cabaret.
- Brad Liebl, summa cum laude from University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and UCT Associate Professor of Classical Voice, has graced the stages of concert halls and opera houses throughout South Africa for almost two decades and returns to USA to sing on an almost annual basis
- Antoinette Blyth, Music Director of the Philharmonia Choir of Cape Town and the Magnificats Chamber Choir and member of True Voices, a 6-voice a capella ensemble
- Lukhanyo Moyake, has appeared in major productions for Cape Town Opera (“Der Rosenkavalier” and “Abduction from the Seraglio”) He is completing his Postgraduate Diploma in Opera and studies voice with Brad Liebl. Last year he was 1st place winner in The Schock Foundation Voice Competition. Cape Town Opera and UCT Opera School have kindly released him to perform in the Maynardville benefit programme
- Victor Tichart, accompanist and well known concert pianist and teacher at the UCT School of Music
